

BMAS Summer School 2025

Scientific Program

We are honored to welcome you to the 3rd International Bone Marrow Adiposity Society (BMAS) Summer School 2023 which will be held virtually, 24 – 26 September 2025.

BMAS is committed to promoting the training of young scientists and new investigators in the field, and this year, BMAS Summer School 2025 offers lectures, workshops, career development and networking sessions given by the most eminent experts in the field. Additionally, BMAS Summer School 2025 has prepared numerous awards for the participants. In partnership with IFMRS, we are also announcing a new program for young researchers, awarding young researchers from low- and middle-income countries.

BMAS kindly invites graduate students, young investigators, and individuals new to the BMAS field to attend BMAS Summer School 2025.

We are looking forward to hosting you in our Summer School. Let's work together to unravel the fascinating bone marrow adiposity!

Sincerely,

BMAS Summer School 2025 Organizing Committee
